Dear Fellow Mayor:

I trust this letter finds you well.

In August 1945, two single atomic bombs instantly reduced the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki to rubble, taking more than 210,000 precious lives. Even today, many of our citizens still struggle with the aftereffects of radiation. The pain of our people, who lost family, friends, and their entire communities, is beyond my ability to describe.

With our hibakusha aging—their average age being now over 83—we are determined to have their experiences and strong desire for peace absorbed and wholeheartedly accepted by future generations, and to have those commitments spread throughout the world. I am convinced that disseminating their message will eventually lead to the realization of their most cherished wish, the abolition of nuclear weapons.

Hiroshima and Nagasaki established Mayors for Peace to realize this goal, which we must achieve as soon as possible so that as many hibakusha as possible can enter with us into a nuclear-weapon-free world. The fact that Mayors for Peace has grown to 8,063 member cities from 166 countries and regions is clear evidence that people around the world wish to be liberated from the nuclear threat.

In July 2021, Mayors for Peace adopted a new Vision and Action Plan at its virtual 12th Executive Conference. The new Vision sets forth three objectives: “Realize a world without nuclear weapons,” “Realize safe and resilient cities,” and “Promote a culture of peace.” In order to pursue these objectives, sustainable development of Mayors for Peace as an organization is essential. Thus, we have decided to put more emphasis on expansion of our membership as part of measures to promote such development.

Mayors for Peace is a non-partisan international network of municipalities, registered at the UN with ECOSOC. The rapidly growing number of Mayors for Peace members is a powerful force generating real momentum toward peace and the abolition of nuclear weapons. To bequeath to our children a cleaner, safer, more peaceful and sustainable world, I humbly ask that you join our efforts toward genuine and lasting world peace.

Sincerely yours,

MATSUI Kazumi
Mayor of Hiroshima

1. Outline

In August 1945, single atomic bombs dropped on the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki instantly reduced them to rubble, taking more than 210,000 precious lives. With more than 75 years since the bombings, many survivors (hibakusha) still suffer from the physical and emotional aftereffects of radiation. To spread throughout the world the hibakusha's ardent wish symbolized in the message that "no one should ever suffer as we have", and to ensure it is passed on to future generations, Hiroshima and Nagasaki remain steadfast in our assertion to the world that nuclear weapons are inhumane and continue to call for their abolition.

On June 24, 1982, at the 2nd UN Special Session on Disarmament held at the UN Headquarters in New York, then Mayor Takeshi Araki of Hiroshima called for cities throughout the world to transcend national borders and join in solidarity to work together to press for nuclear abolition. Subsequently, the Cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki established "The World Conference of Mayors for Peace through Inter-city Solidarity" (now, Mayors for Peace), composed of mayors around the world who formally expressed support for this call. In 1991, the organization was registered as a NGO in Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

On August 5, 2001, the organization changed its name from "The World Conference of Mayors for Peace through Inter-city Solidarity" to "Mayors for Peace".

2. Mission

The purposes of the “Mayors for Peace” are to contribute to the attainment of lasting world peace by arousing concern among citizens of the world for the total abolition of nuclear weapons through close solidarity among member cities as well as by striving to solve vital problems for the human race such as starvation and poverty, the plight of refugees, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation.
