

72nd Anniversary of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki atomic weapons attack

A peace commemoration in solidarity with those affected by the terrible terrorist attacks in Manchester and London and around the world.

Sunday 6th August from 10.30am - 11.30am

Living Worlds Gallery, Manchester Museum

Manchester University, Oxford Road, M13 9PL.

The event will include readings, poetry and a minutes silence. A family creative workshop to fold Hiroshima paper cranes and make Manchester bees, to show solidarity between the two cities will also take place.

All are welcome to attend. For further details go to the Manchester Museum website -
