We warmly welcome the municipal representatives from Japan and throughout the world who have come to attend the 3rd World Conference of Mayors for Peace through Inter-city Solidarity, hosted by the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki under the theme The Role of Cities in Building Peace — Toward the Total Abolition of Nuclear Weapons.

In August 1945, both Hiroshima and Nagasaki were left scorched ruins by atomic bombings, upon which about 200,000 precious lives were lost. Having experienced for ourselves the horror of nuclear weapons, the people of Hiroshima and Nagasaki understand that the onset of nuclear war would inevitably lead to the ruin of the human race. Overcoming the agony and grief the A-bomb experience engendered, we continue our appeal for the abolition of nuclear weapons and the realization of lasting world peace.

The cold war between East and West, which held the world in its oppressive grip for so long, has finally drawn to a close, and now the world is groping its way toward a new world order. The sheer number of nuclear weapons accumulated under the policy of nuclear deterrence, however, still casts a dark shadow over the future of humanity. Adding to the danger posed by nuclear weapons are other threats to people everywhere such as starvation, poverty, the oppression of human rights and global environmental destruction.

War, especially nuclear war, destroys cities most of all — that is to say the residents of cities. It is the mission of local government, therefore, not only to ensure the safety of citizens but also create for them a pleasant and cultural environment, precisely the work to which our organization is dedicated. To protect the promise of humanity's future, cities must begin to transcend national borders to achieve solidarity, overcoming their differences in ideas and beliefs, and tackle the multitude of pressing issues facing us today such as the abolition of nuclear weapons.

Taking these goals to heart since 1983, the Mayors Conference has called on the cities of the world to support the Program to Promote the Solidarity of Cities Toward the Total Abolition of Nuclear Weapons. In 1985, we held the first World Conference of Mayors for Peace through Inter-city Solidarity and in 1989, the second such conference, arousing public opinion toward the abolition of nuclear weapons.

The fact that we are hosting far more participants from overseas at this conference than the two previous conferences is a reflection of the heightening of world opinion for peace, and as sponsors of this conference, we couldn't be more pleased.

It is our hope that this conference, with its participants from all corners of the globe, provides an opportunity for witnessing first-hand the reality of the A-bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, discussing the roles of cities in the creation of world peace, and furthering solidarity and mutual understanding among cities.

We hereby proclaim our determination to achieve lasting world peace by awakening world opinion in favor of the abolition of nuclear weapons and transcending national borders, all the while working to solidify friendship and solidarity among the cities of the world toward our shared bright future on this Earth.

ごあいさつ

「平和の構築と都市の役割—核兵器廃絶を目指して」をテーマに広島市及び長崎市で開催する第3回世界平和連帯都市市長会議に参加されました国内外の都市の代表の皆様を心から歓迎申し上げます。

広島市及び長崎市は、1945年8月、一発の原爆投下によって全市街地が焦土化し、約20万人に及ぶ尊い生命を失いました。以来、原爆の恐ろしさを身をもって体験した広島・長崎両市民は、核戦争は人類の滅亡につながることを知り、苦しさや悲しみを乗り越えて、核兵器の廃絶と世界恒久平和の実現を訴えてまいりました。

戦後長きにわたって世界を支配してきた東西冷戦は終結し、世界の新しい平和秩序づくりが模索されてはいますが、核抑止戦略の下で長年にわたって蓄積されてきた核兵器の量は膨大なものであり、人類の未来に暗い影を落としています。さらに、核兵器の危機に加えて、飢餓・貧困、人権抑圧及び地球的規模での環境破壊などが人類の生存を脅かしています。

戦争、とりわけ核戦争によって多大の被害を受けるのは都市であり、そこに住む市民であることを思うとき、市民の安全を確保し、快適で文化的な都市環境を創造することは、地方自治体に課せられた使命であり、我々の責任であります。輝かしい人類の未来のために、世界の都市と都市が国境を越え、思想・信条の違いを越えて連帯し、核兵器廃絶のほか人類の生存を脅かす様々な諸問題に取り組んでいかなければなりません。

私たちは、こうした願いをもって、1983年以来「核兵器廃絶に向けての都市連帯推進計画」を世界の都市に呼び掛け、1985年に第1回世界平和連帯都市市長会議を、1989年に第2回世界平和連帯都市市長会議を開催し、核兵器廃絶に向けての国際世論の喚起を図ってまいりました。

今回、過去2回の会議をはるかに上回る国から多くの都市の参加をいただきましたことは、平和を願う国際世論の高まりを反映するものであり、主催者として喜びに堪えません。

この会議に参加された各都市の皆様が、広島・長崎の被爆の実相に触れながら、平和の構築と都市の役割について話し合い、都市間の連帯と相互理解を深めていただくよう願ってやみません。

私どもは、輝かしい未来に向けて、国境の枠を超えて、世界の都市との連帯と友好の絆を強固にしながら、核兵器廃絶に向けての国際世論を喚起し、世界恒久平和に向けて努力を続ける決意であります。

HIROSHIMA: A Mother's Prayer A-Bomb Documentary Film

Early in the morning an elderly woman bows in prayer before the Cenotaph in the Peace Park. What can the deep wrinkles in her clasped hands tell us?

In the forty-eight years since the Bomb fell on Hiroshima, it's survivors have struggled back to life. Yet the Bomb continues to cast its shadow across the lives of its victims.

Perhaps even more than others, it is mothers who nurture life and who confront nuclear weapons, agents only of destruction and death. For this reason we have chosen to present the tragedy of the Bomb through the eyes of mothers, mothers who lost their children in the tragedy of Hiroshima. In this film we see the sorrow, the anger, the suffering, and the prayers of mothers, mothers who have lived and continue to live in Hiroshima.

Elisabeth University of Music

The Elisabeth University of Music takes as its mother institution the Catholic Order of Jesus, established in the 16th century under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church. The Order has engaged in educational activities around the world since its founding, with missionary work and contributions toward education making up the main pillar of its imperative.

The Elisabeth University of Music was originally called the Hiroshima Music School, founded in the A-bombed city of Hiroshima directly after World War II in 1948. Its goals are the creation of sensitive musicians equipped with advanced technical skills, developed characters and deep knowledge based on the spirit of Catholicism and contribution to international cultural exchange to deepen trust and friendship between Japan and the West.

In 1952, the school became a two-year college and in 1963, a four-year university. In 1990, it became the only school in southwest Japan, including the islands of Kyushu and Shikoku, to offer a Master's degree in music. In 1993, a doctoral program in music was established, the first such program among private universities in Japan.
A Profile of the Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra

The Hiroshima symphony orchestra, which is also well known as "Hiro-kyou," is the only professional symphony orchestra in the Chugoku and Shikoku districts.

1963 Oct. 12:
Formed as the "Hiroshima Citizens' Symphony Orchestra," organized by musicians living in Hiroshima.

1969: Changed its name to the "Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra."

1991 Oct. 24 and 25:
Performance of The United Nations Peace Concert by the Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra in Vienna and Prague at the invitation of the secretariat of the United Nations in Vienna and the government of Czechoslovakia. In both countries, the performance impressed the audience and won rapturous applause. This great success made 1991 a memorable year for the Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra as it acted as an ambassador for peace and culture.

Nowadays, "Hiro-Kyou," the Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra, performs approximately 150 concerts a year, such as, "The Periodical Concert" which is held nine times a year; "the Special Concert" which is famous for its unique program devised by the orchestra; "The Concerts Tour" which is held in collaboration with the local Board of Education; "School Concerts" at elementary, junior high and high schools; a special concert for Hiroshima citizens called "The Orchestra of My Town: Hiro-Kyou" which is held in collaboration with the Hiroshima Municipal PTA Conference, and many others. As the orchestra plays a larger and larger cultural role in Hiroshima, it will surely continue to develop as a "community orchestra" loved by the people in the area.
Silent prayer for peace and repose of the souls of A-bomb victims

In August 1945, the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki were left scorched ruins by the dropping of atomic bombs, upon which nearly 200,000 precious lives were lost.

Having experienced such suffering, Hiroshima and Nagasaki realize that nuclear war could lead to the end of the human race, and overcoming the hatred and bitterness that this experience engendered, our cities continue to appeal unceasingly for the abolition of nuclear weapons and the realization of world peace.

This year already marks the 48th anniversary of the A-bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. As can be seen with the ratification of such agreements as the INF and START II, a path has been cleared between the United States and Russia for reductions in nuclear arms. Despite this progress, immense stockpiles of these inhuman nuclear weapons still plague our Earth, threatening the destruction of humanity.

In particular, there is concern about the instability regarding nuclear-weapons management following the dissolution of the former Soviet Union; the so-called 'nuclear age,' whose curtain was opened with the tragedies that occurred in Hiroshima and Nagasaki, indisputably continues to this day.

To avoid the tragedy that befell Hiroshima and Nagasaki from occurring again, we continue to call for the abolition of nuclear weapons and the realization of lasting world peace. As part of these efforts, the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Ceremony will take place in Hiroshima on August 6, 1993, and the Nagasaki Peace Memorial Ceremony will take place in Nagasaki on August 9, 1993. At precisely the moment the A-bombs were dropped — 8:15 in the morning of August 6 in Hiroshima and 11:02 in the morning of August 9 in Nagasaki — a one-minute, silent prayer for the repose of the souls of A-bombings victims as well as a prayer for the realization of peace will take place.

To further amplify the prayer's message, we have called on the entire nation to establish a "Day of Prayer." Last year, we asked 874 municipalities to join the movement, about 84 percent of which, or 736 cities, agreed. We would like to express our sincere appreciation for their encouragement in helping us work for this cause.

Near the middle of June this year — the 48th anniversary of the A-bombings — we, the mayors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, requested the establishment of a moment of silence in a joint declaration. We strongly request your support in this matter, which is nothing less than an expansion of silent prayer for peace.

原爆死没者を慰霊並びに平和祈念の意を以てって（お願い）

広島市及び長崎市は、昭和20年8月、一発の原子爆弾の投下によって全市街路が焦土と化し、約20万人に及ぶ尊い生命を失いました。

以来、広島・長崎両市民は、その体験から、核戦争は人類の絶滅につながることを知り、苦しみや憎しみを乗り越えて、絶えず核兵器の廃絶と世界平和の実現を訴え続けてまいりました。

広島・長崎両市は、今年は原爆爆48周年を迎えます。

INFの全廃やSTRAT IIの調印に見られるように、米国と旧ソ連の間では核軍縮の方向は定まりましたが、なお地球上には、非人道的な瞬時大量殺滅兵器が数多く残されております。

特に、旧ソ連崩壊後、核兵器管理の不安が懸念され、広島・長崎の悲劇で幕を開いた「核の時代」が、今なお続いていますことは厳然たる事実です。

あの悲劇を二度と繰り返すことなく、核兵器の廃絶と世界平和の実現を願い、本年も、広島市では8月6日に「広島原爆死没者が慰霊式と並びに平和祈念式典」と、長崎市では8月9日に「長崎市原爆犠牲者慰霊平和祈念式典」を挙行し、原爆投下時刻の8月6日午前8時15分（広島市）と8月9日午前11時2分（長崎市）に、原爆死没者の冥福と平和の実現を祈り、1分間の静とうを捧げております。

私の者、この祈りの輪をさらに広げ、「祈りの日」として確立するよう全国の都道府県、市等に、静とうを呼び掛けてまいりました。

昨日は、874の自治体に要請をいたしましたところ、約84パーセントにあたる736の自治体の御賛同をいただきまして、このうれしい励ましと深く感謝いたしております。

被爆48周年の本年も、平和を祈念する静とうの輪をより一層広げていただきますよう、重ねてお願い申し上げます。

広島平和都市記念碑（原爆慰霊碑）

この慰霊碑は、世界最初の原子爆弾の投下によって壊滅した広島市を平和都市として再建することを念願して1952年8月6日に建立されました。碑文は「安らかに眠って下さい 過ちは繰り返しませぬから」です。

これは、すべての人々が、原爆犠牲者の冥福を祈り、戦争という過ちを再び繰り返さないことを誓う言葉であります。過去の悲しみに耐え、憎しみを乗り越えて、全人類の共存と繁栄を願い、真の世界平和の実現を祈念するヒロシマの心がここに刻まれております。

中央室の地下収納室には、原爆死没者名簿が納められております。

59冊の名簿に176,964人（1992年8月現在）の死没者の名が記入されています。

Memorial Monument for Peace, City of Hiroshima (Cenotaph for the A-Bomb Victims)

This cenotaph was dedicated on August 6, 1952 with the hope that Hiroshima City would be rebuilt as a city of peace from the ashes of destruction caused by the world's first atomic bomb dropped in war. The text on the cenotaph reads, 'Let All the

Souls Here Rest in Peace; For We Shall Not Repeat The Evil.'

It summons people everywhere to pray for the repose of the souls of the deceased A-Bomb victims, and declares the intent that the mistake of war never be repeated. Such is the will of the people of Hiroshima, that enduring grief and overcoming hatred, prays for the peaceful coexistence and prosperity of all mankind and years for the realization of a real world peace.

A register of 59 volumes listing 176,964 known victims of the A-Bomb is housed inside a stone chamber in the center of the cenotaph.

原爆ドーム

被爆前のこの建物は広島県産業奨励館として利用されておりました。1945年8月6日午前8時15分、人類史上初の原子爆弾はこの建物の東160mの上空約880メートルで爆発いたしました。

原爆ドームは原爆の惨禍を後の世まで伝え、世界の平和を訴えるシンボルとして、永久に保存することとしております。1967年と1989年の2回保存工事が行われ、国内はもとより、世界各国から多くの寄付が寄せられました。

The A-Bomb Dome is the ruins of the former Hiroshima Prefecture Industrial Promotion Hall. The hypocenter was at a place 160 meters (480 feet) east of this building. The bomb exploded 580 meters (1,740 feet) in the sky.

The A-Bomb Dome is to be preserved as an appeal for world peace and as a witness to the horror of nuclear weapons. In 1967 and in 1989 there was world-wide campaign to raise funds to preserve this building. Donations were collected from not only in Japan but also rest of the world.

広島平和記念資料館

1945年（昭和20年）8月6日
広島市は、人類史上初めての原子爆弾による都市攻撃の結果、重篤な被災を受けました。

1949年（昭和24年）9月
広島市中央公民館の中に、「原爆参考資料陳列室」（原爆記念館）が設置され、原爆被災資料の公開展示が始められました。

1955年（昭和30年）8月
1949年（昭和24年）に公布された「広島平和記念都市建設法」に基づき建設された平和記念公園の中に、「広島平和記念資料館」が開館しました。その後資料収集には、市民有志の会である「原爆資料収集後援会」（原爆資料保存会）を始め、一般市民の方々の協力がありました。開館以来、数度の改修をうけ、展示内容の更新を行いながら、当館は、20世紀の人々が経験した凄惨な事実、原爆被災の実相を後世に伝え、世界の平和と核兵器の廃絶を願う「ヒロシマの心」を知っていただいてきました。これからも、ヒロシマに関心を寄せられる国内外の多くの人たちとともに、歩んでいきたいと思っています。

Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum

August 6, 1945
The world's first atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima. Almost the entire city was devastated.

September 1949
The exhibits related to the atomic bombing were collected in the Hiroshima Central Community Center.

August 1955
Under the Hiroshima Peace Memorial City Construction Law, Peace Memorial Park was constructed as a place of prayer for peace. In this park the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum was opened to the public. This museum is indebted to many people for their assistance in collecting the materials and documents of the bombing.

広島平和記念資料館
The area destroyed by the atomic bomb encompassed a total of more than 6.7 million square meters, or one third of the entire city. At the time, it was thought that no plants or trees would grow for the next 70 years.

長崎国際文化会館（原爆資料館）の概要

原爆資料館（完成予想図）

長崎国際文化会館は、長崎国際文化都市建設法の一事業として、原爆の惨事から立ち上がった長崎市民の復興への意欲と世界平和の願いを象徴する建物として、昭和30年2月に建設され、原爆被災の実相を伝える資料館として国内外の人々に利用されてきました。

現在、平成8年3月を目途に、建て替え工事が始まっています。

新しい建物は、世界戦後平和実現に努力する国際平和都市長崎のシンボルとなるよう計画しております。延床面積は、これまでの約3倍にあたる7,800㎡となり、常設展示室、企画展示室、平和学習ホール、平和学習室、ビデオルームなどを備えています。

Nagasaki International Culture Hall (Atomic Bomb Museum)

The Nagasaki International Culture Hall is a project resulting from the Nagasaki International Culture City Reconstruction Law, symbolizing the desire of Nagasaki’s citizens to reconstruct their city and their hope for world peace following their own recovery from the atomic bombing. It was built in February 1955 and has served as a museum on the Nagasaki atomic bombing for people from both inside and outside Japan.

Reconstruction work will be completed by March 1996.

The new building is expected to become the symbol for Nagasaki — an international city striving to realize lasting world peace. Its total floor space will reach nearly three times the current building’s at 7,800m². The new building will house a permanent exhibition room, planning exhibition room, peace training hall, peace study room, and video room.

Peace Statue

The Peace Statue sits on a hill north of the hypocenter, measuring 9.7 meters high and weighing 30 tons.

Based on the slogan Peace Begins in Nagasaki and embracing the desire of the residents of the atomic bombed city of Nagasaki for lasting peace, the monument was completed in 1955, the 10th anniversary of the atomic bombing.

The statue symbolizes the love of God and the mercy of Buddha. The raised right hand represents the threat of nuclear weapons while the outstretched left hand represents peace. The lightly closed eyes represent a prayer to console the souls of the atomic bomb victims.

Enshrined in a vault in front of the monument is a registry of victims’ names. The registry is composed of 93 volumes and lists the names of 95,845 people as of August 1992.
