What would be a sustainable
activity for peace?

The answer was our petition
for the abolition of nuclear weapons.

This campaign is closely related to Mayors for peace.

平和首長会議

Mayors for Peace

The hibakusha's suffering is the grass roots of the total abolition of nuclear weapons.

Mr. Ichiro Moritaki,
an atomic bomb survivor, insisted.
This was the starting point of our signature collecting campaign.

A photograph of an elderly woman, Ms. Chieko Kiriake, speaking into a microphone. She is wearing a dark jacket. Behind her is a large white banner with bold black Japanese calligraphy. The visible characters include 'HIROSHIMA' in English and '広島' (Hiroshima) in Japanese. The scene appears to be a public demonstration or protest.

Both I and my husband
are Hibakusha.
So we decided
not to have a child.

All I want to say is no one should ever have to suffer as we have.
