"Hiroshima and Peace", a great experience

- Learn more about people from different countries.
- A breakthrough in my understanding about what peace means to me.
- We have got the encouragement, ideas and tools to take part or even create new actions or campaigns with local and international community to spread the spirit of peace.
- We realized how much we had learned during those two weeks since finally we were able to elaborate well-founded reasoning around the idea of peace.
- We reach a very rich understanding of the nature and attributes of war and peace.
- We share the potential projects that each of us could carry out in each city, experiences and best practices.
- Promote common synergies among all sharing projects and activities realized to increase the impact of our actions, working together for a nuclear- weapon-free world.
