

International Youth Conference for Peace in the Future, 2019 Hiroshima

Established in 2005 as a commemorative event during the 60th anniversary of the atomic bombing, the International Youth Conference for Peace in the Future aims to bring together youth (high school students and college students) from sister and friendship cities and their sister and friendship cities to have participants think about world peace, deepen the friendship and mutual understanding between our cities, and raise awareness about world peace among the next generation. This annual conference is hosted alternately by the City of Hiroshima and sister and friendship cities.

This year the event will be held in Hiroshima City from August 4 to August 12.
